

We Know Features Are Important To You

Finding and buying the right home is a highly personalized process and it begins by identifying your needs. Prior to looking for your new home, take a moment to think about these questions and what property features are most important to you:

- What would you consider a comfortable work commute?
- What are the most important activities for the members of your household?
- What are the features you liked most about the homes you have lived in previously?

Features

Need

Want

Dream

Home Style

Age of Home

Lot Size

Price Range

Bedrooms/Baths

Upgraded Kitchen

Family Room

Office / Work Space

Garage / Basement

Closets / Storage

Neighborhood

View

Deck / Patio / Porch

Pool / Spa

Major Systems

Other
